EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Authorization

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with applicant's attorney Stephen Jensen on September 21, 2004.

Amendments

2. The application has been amended as follows:

The title has been changed to:

-- METHOD OF STRETCHING FILM --.

Claims 49-70 have been canceled without prejudice as being drawn to non-elected species.

Examiner's Statement(s) of Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

- (1) The prior art of record does not teach or suggest actively imparting a machine direction cooling gradient to at least a portion of the width of a stretched film, as defined on page 13, lines 11-21 of applicant's original disclosure, in an effective amount to improve the uniformity of spacing of driven and idler clips that are propelled to thereby stretch the film. Although U.S. Patent No. 3,551,546 to Gosper et al. in view of U.S. Patent No. 4,853,602 to Hommes et al. suggests actively imparting a machine direction cooling gradient to at least a portion of the width of a stretched film, U.S. Patent No. 3,551,546 to Gosper et al. in view of U.S. Patent No. 4,853,602 to Hommes et al. does not teach or suggest that such a cooling gradient would improve the uniformity of the spacing of the driven and idler clips. Further, such an improvement in the spacing of the driven and idler clips does not appear be inherently flow from the application of a machine direction cooling gradient.

Art Unit: 1732

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
